VARSITY EXPECTS TO WIN FROM YELLOW

This afternoon the Varsity meets Rochester on her own Campus. Last year the Yellow broke precedent by a victory on our field; this year the team expects to retrieve itself.

Up to the last two years the Rochester game was one of the easy contests on Hamilton's schedule, but under its new coach, Rochester has two victories to her credit. Rochester's team this year is composed almost entirely of last year's veterans. In the Syracuse game, the only standard of comparison, the Yellow team was defeated, 17-0. The Varsity has worked hard this week perfecting new offensive plays, and strengthening the ends against the style of play which Rochester will probably employ.

Drummond has sufficiently recovered from his injury to allow him to be in his regular place. His presence will add strength to the line. The rest of the line-up will probably be as in the Colgate game. The condition of the team is all that could be desired.

Recent scores in the Rochester-Hamilton games are:

1902	Rochester	0	Hamilton	42
1903	Rochester	6	Hamilton	11
1904	Rochester	6	Hamilton	28
1905	Rochester	0	Hamilton	28
1906	Rochester	0	Hamilton	21
1907	Rochester	26	Hamilton	9
1908	Rochester	5	Hamilton	0

The probable line-up:

Rochester		Hamilton
Doyle	Left End	Burdick
Mullen	Left Tackle	Baldwin
Abbott,	Left Guard	Glover (Capt.)
Koegler, Dunn	Center	Wheeler
Hunt	Right Guard	Wisehart
Koegler	Right Tackle	Drummond
Roberts	Right End	Peters
Joy	Quarterback	McGovern
B. Ramaker	Left Halfback	Knox
Smith	Right Halfback	Harper
Pray (Capt.)	Fullback	Sidle

In connection with the Industrial Exposition in Rochester, the New York Central offers a round trip rate of $3.25 from Utica, which should make it possible for a large Hamilton contingent to attend the game.Rochester sent over fifty men last year. We should not be outdone. The 10.39 Buffalo Express from Utica will get you there in time for the game.

English Class for Italians

On Monday night, October 18th, the English class for Italians, organized by the Utica Y. M. C. A., and to be conducted this year by Hamilton College men, will begin in a room rented for the purpose on Elizabeth street, Utica. All men who are interested in practical work of this kind will find every opportunity to help. The Dr. Peters Roberts method of instruction, which does not require any knowledge of Italian on the part of the instructor, will be used. Four classes will be conducted, two on Monday and two on Thursday night. Men who are willing to assist in this social service work are asked to give their names to Knox, '10, or Renwick, '10, and plan to attend the first meeting next Monday night.

Varsity Outclassed

COLGATE WINS BY AN OVERWHELMING SCORE

The result of the Colgate game last Saturday was a disappointment to many followers of the Hamilton team. Many alumni of the college undoubtedly looked for a close score and perhaps a victory for the Buff and Blue. To disable the team early in the season seemed to be a bad policy and most of the scoring was made in the second half against practically a substitute team. The team in the first half showed marked improvement over the first two games. This was especially noticeable in the work of the ends. Burdick and Peters started the game in these positions and with a few mistakes in intercepting the forward pass, seemed to size up the Colgate attack with accuracy. Their weight, however, is against them. Captain Glover at guard played the best all around game and kept the team well in hand. Harper '11 proved himself to be a valuable half back and did some good work in Saturday's game. The score was 11-0 at the end of the first half, the second touchdown being due to a break of luck for Colgate. The team was almost entirely composed of the scrub in the second half and, naturally, they were unable to check Colgate's well directed attack. Drummond was not in the game owing to an injured knee.

The game in detail:

Wheeler started the kicking. He boosted the ball to Colgate's 25-yard line, where Campbell captured it and carried it ten yards. Colgate made little headway and as a result McDonald punted to Hamilton's 35-yard line. Hamilton carried it to the center of the field. Wheeler punted to Colgate's 30-yard line, where Manley caught it and was downed in his tracks. On the next play Campbell carried the ball 25 yards around right end. He next made 5 yards thru the right side of the line and Manley made 5 yards thru center. Here MacDonald stood back and attempted a forward pass to Bartholomew. He did not catch it and consequently the ball went to Hamilton in the center of the field.

Hamilton then made a few futile attempts to gain ground, but could do nothing. Failing to make any headway, Wheeler punted. Manley captured the ball on Colgate's 35-yard line and was again downed. Campbell made no gain. Woodman was then given the ball and he circled right end for 20 yards. Then a series of straight bucking followed by Manley and Woodman. Small gains were made until Woodman carried the ball over the line. Colgate failed to kick the goal. Score, 5 to 0.

Wheeler kicked to Colgate's 25-yard line, where Campbell caught the ball. He then made 10 yards to the 50-yard line. Hamilton got the ball on downs and made a fight for ground but could not make it. They then tried a forward pass. Harper threw the ball but no one caught it. This resulted in yards. This took them to their own 40-yard line and there they lost the ball on downs. A rapid succession of ground gaining plays followed this. Campbell and Woodman carried the ball to Hamilton's 12-yard line on two downs. From here Manley forced it to the 4-yard line and then Woodman took it to within half a yard of the posts. Manley carried it over, making five more points. He then kicked the goal, making the score 11 and 0. This was after 15 minutes of play.

Wheeler kicked off to Colgate. By a couple of fakes, MacDonald standing back for a punt, but instead of kicking the ball, taking it and running, Colgate approached their opponent's goal. Woodman carried it to Hamilton's 15-yard line. It was here when the whistle blew. Score, 11-0.

SECOND HALF

Colgate kicked to Hamilton, but the Buff and Blue fumbled in the center of the field. Blanchard captured the ball and carried it along the side line to Hamilton's 15-yard line before he was captured. Woodman hit Hamilton's line for a touchdown. Manley kicked the goal, making the score 17 and 0. On the next kick off Wheeler sent the ball to McGough. MacDonald then went five yards on a fake punt. Manley did the same trick and made the distance. Campbell went around right end for 20 yards more. Woodman hit the line for seven more. Manley then carried it 20 yards. Then Campbell made 9 yards and Woodman carried it to the 4-yard line. Manley was shoved over, making the score 22-0. MacDonald failed in his attempt to kick the goal.

Wheeler kicked off again and rapidlythe ball went toward Hamilton's goal. An exchange of punts occurred and the ball was soon in Colgate's possession in Hamilton's territory. Gains averaging from ten to fifteen yards were made until Campbell took it at the 10-yard line and scored. MacDonald kicked the goal, making the score 27 to 0.

At this point practically all of the Varsity was taken out, and Colgate scored three touchdowns and a safety with very little difficulty. Final score, 48-0.

MUSICAL CLUBS

The outlook for the Mandolin Club for the current year is unusually promising. Practically all the veterans of last year will play, and altho C. Leavenworth, '09, and L. Leavenworth, ex-'10, will be greatly missed, the material from the Freshman class is extraordinarily good. Most of the new men have had considerable experience. With I. A. Hall, '10, who is very well adapted to the position, as leader, a good club is promised.

Practices will be held for the present regularly on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, at 5 o'clock.

The Club for this term will consist of twenty-one men. This number will be reduced later in the season to sixteen.

The Club follows: First Mandolin, Barber, Fiske, Hemenway, McNair, Stone, '10; Gould, Westcott, '11; DuBois, '12; True, '13. Second Mandolin, Adams, Eells, Thomas, Wallace, '12; Barber, Gould, Myer, Woods, '13.

Guitars, I. A. Hall, Leader, Getman, Renwick, '10; Griswold, '13.

The Glee Club, twenty-seven strong, has been practicing regularly three times a week. The new football song, published in LIFE last week, has been tried with great success. Most of the work so far, however, has been merely preliminary, none of the selections which will probably compose the regular program having been undertaken. Dounce, '10, second bass, and Gould, '11, second tenor, have resigned from the Club, and their places have been filled by Burdick, '11, and Peters, '12.

The plans of the management are naturally, at this time, extremely indefinite. The trips include, however, a concert before the College this term, a Winter Trip in February thru western New York, and an Easter Trip down the Hudson, closing in New York City. All success to the Clubs of 1910.

—On Monday evening of this week Coach Pryor called a meeting of Football men in the Gymnasium. After a short talk on general training, trick plays and new formations were outlined on the chart.

—The following Sophomores are trying out for the Assistant Managership of LIT.: DuBois, Eddy, Eells, Peters, Slaughter.

Reportorial

TODAY THE VARSITY is in Rochester, confident of victory. The College is looking for a successful contest. In fact everyone is optimistic. The team is in good physical condition, and has been working hard to perfect every possible defensive and offensive play that will work for the downfall of the Yellow. Under these conditions, the outlook is more than propitious.

However, there are two things which the College can do, which will help to a great degree. The first is that every man who can should go to Rochester with the team. The excursion rates overcome financial objections. The other alternative is that every man who finds it impossible to leave the Hill meet the team this evening at the Utica Station when the 10:20 train arrives. Give the men a "Long Yell"—just to show them that the support of the College is heartily given to a Hamilton team, no matter whether the game has been a victory or a defeat. That is true Hamilton Spirit.

The Varsity needs your support—every team does. It is in your power to give it in one of these two ways. We trust no one will fail to avail themselves of the opportunity.

FOR YEARS PAST "the Colgate game" has been the objective game of the season and the schedule has been arranged with that end in view. This year it was relegated to a minor position on the schedule, which necessitated some change in the handling of the team. Obviously there were but two things for Coach Pryor to do: one was to place the best possible team in the field and leave it there until injuries absolutely demanded the removal of a player. If this policy had been followed, the chances for a successful season following would have been greatly impaired. The second alternative, and unquestionably the wiser, was to accompany the team with a large squad, placing the first team in the field and substituting new men as soon as the Varsity began to weaken. This was the policy adopted by Coach Pryor, and altho it permitted Colgate to roll up a larger score than usual, the Varsity at the end of the game was little worse for wear.

The adverse conditions under which the Colgate game is played every year again calls the attention of the College to the advisability of playing the game at all. We appreciate the fact that the Colgate game is one of the traditions of the College and as such should not be lightly cast aside. However, we should not be blind to the fact that the relative athletic strength of the two institutions has greatly changed in the past few years. First of all we should consider the players themselves. Pluck and loyalty have always been characteristics of a Hamilton athlete. They fight and fight hard. Is it right, then, for us to sanction and arrange athletic contests where our own men are outweighed from twenty to fifty pounds per man and then appeal to Hamilton Spirit and watch our athletes fight against overwhelming odds until they are worn out and carried off the field? The Colgate game is not a money maker, and of course fails in the way of advertisement.

No criticism can be made of the game which the team played Saturday. They did their best, but were defeated by a better team. It has been a historic and splendid rivalry. But has it not outlived its usefulness? It is safe to say that the present Colgate eleven is in a class with the best college teams of the country, and yet we must play them on an even basis. Is it not futile? The advisability of playing the game in the future must, of course, be left to the College and Alumni. It is at least worth consideration. Think it over.

FALL BASEBALL PRACTICE is an innovation, but it is one which should be most successful. The one difficulty that has handicapped Buff and Blue Baseball teams in the past has been the late season, which cannot be avoided in this part of the country. Little, if any, opportunity was given the coach and the captain to try out new material. The natural result was that the schedule opened each year with, one might almost say, a green team, without any great amount of outdoor practice. Work in the fall should overcome this difficulty, and it was with that end in view that Captain Judson called out the squad. The idea is a good one. Let us have more like it, for it is just such innovations as this that make for the bettering of our activities.

COLLEGE DINNER

On Thursday evening the College assembled in Commons Hall for the first dinner of the year. The program was much the same as those of former festivals, even to the dinner served by Caterer Mertz. The menu however was not the most important part of the evening's enjoyment, which was found chiefly in the general spirit of good fellowship and Hamilton cheer. In the course of the evening Professor Collier's new song was tried and given an enthusiastic welcome. It should prove one of the finest of a noble collection.

After the feast— consisting mainly of wit and flow of soul—the more informal variation of the "we have with us tonight" was begun. The team had in the meantime condescended to grace the erstwhile training table and now Captain Glover was called forth. He protested that he could only quote Baldwin's sanguine prediction as to the result of the game with Rochester.

Professor Shearer spoke from an intimate knowledge of the composition of the team and wished them every success against Rochester and against the remaining teams on the schedule. Sherwin, '10, pleaded with all who could to attend the game at Rochester on Saturday and made a strong case for a large attendance. He was seconded by Cross, '10, who advocated the meeting of the team at the Utica station on their return. Despite the insistent demands of the team, Dounce '10, gracefully declined to add relish to the repast, and then Butler, '09, was discovered and promptly called forth from his ineffective hiding place, and made to respond with a few words. An insistent call for the quartette was promptly hushed up by the announcement of Hastings, '10, that one of its members was absent and the company perforce resorted to cheers and songs. "Carissima" was the fitting conclusion to an evening which can receive no greater mark of approval than that it was distinctively Hamiltonian.

College dinners have proved their worth. They have a place in our life here and we should realize that it is good for us to be there. They should not be lost sight of as a valuable means of fostering and keeping alive the essentially democratic spirit which is one of the finest things of our life on this Hill.

UNDERCLASSMEN MEET

1912 repeated its victory of last year in the Fall Track Meet on Thursday by a score of 70½ to 19½ points. Altho the attendance was smaller than usual, yet much enthusiasm was shown thruout the meet. While the event speaks well for the 1912 team, it is to be hoped that the Freshmen will send more men out and make a better showing in track work.

From the start the Sophomores took the lead and increased the score in every event. Captain Donaldson won the most points for 1912 and every first place was captured by the Sophomores.

The usual program was run off with the exception of the 2-mile run, which took the place of the mile, and the hurdles, which were omitted this year. The middle distance runs proved the most exciting of the day, but the Sophomores won them all by a sure margin.

The high jump was the best contested field event, and Townsend should be a valuable man next year. True and Shaul also look like promising Varsity material.

The results of the events in order are:

100-yard Dash: Donaldson, '12,True, '13, DuBois, '12. Time 11 1-5s.

1-2 mile Run: Eggleston, '12, Pilch, '13, Shawl, '13. Time 2m. 20 3-5s. Shawl, '13. Time 2m. 20 3-5s.

High Jump: Bagg, '12, Townsend, '13, Myer, '13, and Plant, '12 (tied). Height 5ft.

Shot-Put: D. Root, '12, Donaldson, '12, Trout, '13. Distance, 33ft. 4in.

220-yard Dash: DuBois, '12, True, '13, D. Root, '12. Time 26s.

2-mile Run: Bates, '12, Eggleston, '12, DuBordieu, '12. Time 12m. 31s.

Hammer Throw: Donaldson, '12, Hallock, '12, Clark, '12. Distance 75ft. 10in.

Broad Jump: Donaldson, '12, Clark, '12,Shaul, '13. Distance 18ft. 8½in

Quarter-Mile Run: C. Root, '12, Davis, '13, Dalrymple, '13. Time 1m.

Pole Vault: Donaldson, '12, Hallock, '12, Shaul, '13. Height 9ft.

Total: Sophomores, 70½; Freshmen, 19½ points.

LIFE BOARD MEETS

On last Sunday the LIFE Board met and voted to give twenty-five dollars, which was over and above their accounts last year, to the Press Club. This organization has been working diligently and hard during the past year, but it needs financial support to be successful. If the action of LIFE is folowed by the alumni and student body, the efforts of the club will not be hindered by the lack of funds as is the case at the present time. Every Hamilton man, whether he be an alumnus or an undergraduate, should take a vital interest in this club for, to promote its interests is to promote the interests of the College. Hamilton being, one might almost say, the least advertised of colleges, is greatly handicapped. To overcome this fault is the aim of the club. This year LIFE and Lit. will be sent to every prep. school and high school in the state as an advertising medium. The men who comprise the club are hard-working, earnest and efficient, and with the co-operation of the student body, their efforts can not help but be of great value to the College.

Another meeting of the Board will be held Sunday afternoon, in No. 4 South, at 3:45. An important matter will be considered, and every member of the staff should be on hand and on time.

HILL NOTES

—John Henderson, '08, is in the Albany Law School.

—The Sophomore set-ups are now posted at VanSlyke's.

—A. S. Evans, '09, has been elected President of his class at the Albany Law School.

—It is expected that Cadigan of Syracuse will come here shortly to coach the line.

—The Football team will make the Powers Hotel their headquarters during their stay in Rochester.

—Dr. Stryker will speak at the Inauguration of Dr. Bryan, Colgate's new President, on October 20th.

—T. C. Jessup, '13, has been obliged to leave the Football squad temporarily on account of a delinquency.

—"Uncle John" announces that the Freshman physical examinations will not occur until the end of the Football season.

—The Charlatans are planning a revival. They expect to give "The Private Secretary." Professor Shepard will criticise their efforts.

—Several Freshmen bought "rakes" of the Sophomores, while others went to see Prof. Babcock, in order to arrange their time for raking.

—George L. Abbott, 1910, of Camden, has been elected to Pentagon to fill the vacancy made by the absence from College of Leavenworth, ex-'10.

—Thompson, '00, who for the past three years has been Principal of the Mechanicville High School, has been appointed Teacher of Latin and Mathematics in the Utica Free Academy.

—The regular Saturday Chapel for Seniors and Juniors has been postponed until Monday at 5 o'clock, to enable the men who are going to Rochester to arrive in time for the game.

—The LIT. Board announces that a staff position will be given to any Junior who submits an available contribution every month until and including the January issue.

—The "Gym." records show that since October 8th the entire Varsity has gained twelve pounds in weight. Considering the heat on the day of the Colgate game this is rather remarkable.

—Professor Lewis announces that Samuel Hopkins Adams, '91, will lecture the English Seminar on "Journalism" in the near future. George E. Dunham, Editor of the Utica Press, will address the same body on October 26th.

—Word has been received from Cleveland of the death of William Hubbell Fisher, of the Class of 1864. He was the eldest son of the Rev. Dr. Samuel Ware Fisher, President of Hamilton College from 1858 to 1866.

—Communications have been received from the Manager of the Amherst Musical Clubs suggesting a joint concert with the Hamilton Clubs, the Hamilton Management to choose the place and the time. The proposal meets with general approval.

—The Bowling Alleys opened for the fall and winter season last Wednesday. As a change from last year, the membership will be two dollars per season instead of a dollar a term. Individual tournaments and interfraternity matches will be started as soon as the Football season closes. Swift, '10, and Sheffield, '11, are in charge.

PENNANT AWARD PROTESTED

The regular fall meeting of the N. Y. S. I. A. U. was held in the office of Attorney A. J. Foley in Utica, Hamilton being represented by Professor W. H. Squires and Renwick, '10. Representatives of Colgate, Union, Rochester, and Hobart were also present. The chief business, aside from routine reports, was the awarding of the Baseball, Basketball and Track Pennants. The Basketball pennant was awarded to Rochester and the Track pennant to Colgate. The athletic committee recommended that the Baseball pennant be awarded to Rochester, but Union protested the award on the grounds of professionalism. The charges were referred to the judicial committee after a very spirited discussion in which all joined.

It is claimed that Rochester played a man named Harrington, who was strictly a professional, having played in the minor leagues. The Rochester representatives desired an amendment which would allow college players to engage in summer Baseball, but it seemed to be the sense of the company that the rule should be enforced as it now stands.

Charges were also preferred against Colgate for playing a man named Buck, who, it is claimed, won a letter at Amherst under a different name. These charges, together with the others, were referred to the judicial committee, Dr. Squires.

Reports for the year indicated a successful season. It was decided to hold an Intercollegiate Track Meet at Utica Park on Memorial Day and the Hamilton management was instructed to make all necessary arrangements.

Officers for the ensuing year were named as follows: President, Prof. J. A. Leighton, Hobart; Vice-President, Dr. E. C. Huntington, Colgate; Secretary, Prof. Moreland King, Union; Treasurer, Dr. W. H. Squires, Hamilton.
